

For your wedding ceremony at Traquair

All weddings, regardless of faith, celebrant or civil must be registered with the local Registrar for Peeblesshire district. The Registrar will take you through the legal requirements, and can, if you wish, perform your ceremony for you. There is a fee to pay directly to the Registrar and you should do this a minimum of 6 weeks before your wedding day.

Two witnesses are required for a ceremony, and if needed we are happy to help with this at Traquair.

In Scotland, any faith or celebrant may marry you in our Chapel at Traquair; but a Registrar may not. For an indoor Civil ceremony, we use either the lower or high drawing room, depending on numbers.

If you wish to have an outdoor ceremony, we have lots of lovely spaces at Traquair. This can be performed by any of those listed below, although some faiths are reluctant to do this, so we recommend you discuss your ideas directly with your chosen person.
